

March 22, 2017

Arts & Culture Day in Tallahassee

Katina Woods
 Director of Public Relations
 Goldsboro West Side Community Historical Association Inc.
 407-585-0692
 Publicrelations@goldsboromuseum.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SANFORD, Fla.- Featured above: Elizabeth Thompson, Executive Director of the Wells 'built Museum and House of Representatives Kamia Brown, Jason Brodeur House of Representative from Seminole County, Valerie Clarke-Legislative Assistant and Pasha Baker Director & CEO of Goldsboro West Side Community Historical Association supported the Arts & Culture in Tallahassee, Florida. The arts and culture advocates throughout Florida stepped up and shared their unified voices in Tallahassee with legislators and their staff members to remind them that their support of Florida's arts, arts education, and culture investments preserve and create jobs, expand tourism, revitalize downtowns and communities, diversify and build local and state economies, strengthen global commerce, improve student achievement, and prevent crime. Legislative leaders received Legislative Star Awards for their support of arts, arts education, and culture in our state. March 22, 2017 at 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Was located at the Art Gallery on 22nd Floor of Capitol in Tallahassee, Florida.

The Goldsboro Museum showcases and preserves the history, heritage, livelihood, and culture of Goldsboro, Florida.

About Goldsboro Museum- Goldsboro is celebrating its 125th Birthday and our mission is to enrich the quality of life through the History and Culture of Goldsboro. The museum highlights this heritage with exhibits about Goldsboro as a city and as a part of Sanford. To learn more visit www.goldsboromuseum.com, or call us at 407-585-0692.